

Press Release

For immediate Release: Friday August 13, 2010

Abbotsford, BC - The Métis Nation British Columbia (MNBC) congratulates Minister John Duncan, MP as the newly appointed Minister for Indian Affairs and Northern Development Canada and the Interlocutor for Métis and Non-Status Indians.

President Bruce Dumont stated “MNBC is very pleased to have the opportunity to work with Minister Duncan and looks forward to building onto the long time relationship between the Office of the Federal Interlocutor and the Métis Nation British Columbia.”

The Metis Nation British Columbia has valued both the personal and professional relationship with former INAC and OFI Minister Chuck Strahl and on behalf of the MNBC board of directors, staff and Metis Citizens extends congratulations to Minister Strahl on his new appointment as Minister of Transportation, Infrastructure and Communities and look forward to future potential partnership opportunities”.

The Metis Nation British Columbia is committed to working with the Government of Canada and the Office of the Federal Interlocutor on commitments and new opportunities in the sustainability of the Métis Nation BC.

- 30 -

MNBC Media Contact
Malonie Langthorne
Chief Executive Officer
Malonie@mNBC.ca or 604-557-5851